

Dear representative I urge you and your colleagues to promote a balanced media. During the Iraq war you only got one perspective which was wrong. I want to see people who are not just in support of the war and the president but in opposition. I would also like to hear the BBC news or Iraq news and more pictures of actual news not just gossip.

from Alycia Rosenberg